Rio ministry sails through trust vote

KOHIMA, MARCH 13 /--/ The Neiphiu Rio-led ministryt in Nagaland won the floor test in the Assembly today. The legislators, who met for the first time since the formation of the new government, elected Vikho-O Yhoshu of the NDPP as the new speaker.

In the 60-member Assembly, 33 votes were cast in favour of the confidence motion and 26 against it. Barring the speaker, all 59 legislators signed a register to cast their vote for the motion today. Of the 33 MLAs that voted in favour of the Rio government, 17 were NDPP members, 12 were of the BJP, two of the NPP, one was a JD-U MLA and another was an Independent legislator. Yhoshu had served as an MLA for three terms in the past. He represents the southern Angami-I constituency.

Polling to 59 seats was held in Nagaland on February 27. Rio, who had won unopposed from the Northern Angami-II Assembly constituency on February 12, staked claim to form government with the support of 34 legislators on March 4, a day after the results were announced. The chief minister, along with 10 other ministers, were administered the oath of office by Governor P B Acharya on March 8.

Acharya had asked the newly-elected chief minister to prove his majority on the floor of the House by March 16. (PTI)

Railway minister holds consultations on station redevelopment programme

NEW DELHI, MARCH 13 /--/ The Union minister of railways and coal Piyush Goyal met architects and planners to discuss issues related to station redevelopment program. A total number of 110 professionals from 54 firms participated in the meeting. The minister was categorical that in view of the financial condition of Indian Railways and the paying capacity of public there is a need for finding solutions that meet the aspirations of travelling public at low cost. Piyush Goyal said "We shall work on providing innovative solutions tailored to uniquely Indian conditions. I am confident that we will eventually be in a position to share the expertise in other countries as well".

This consultation meeting held with architects was aimed to understand the issues and difficulties in participating in development or redevelopment of railway stations. The discussions were held on wide range of issues from the difficulties that the architects and planners are facing in participating in station redevelopment program; modifications required in various documents guiding the station design; general direction that station redevelopment program shall take. Goyal assured the participants that as desired the empanelment will be made in more categories; name of the architect will be included in the plaque. The minster also directed Indian Railway Stations Development Corporation (IRSDC) limited to take up capacity building of Consultants as Station Development is as yet a new field. Goyal also stated that young architects and planners shall also be involved in the station development program and they may be engaged for smaller/ simpler stations.

It may be recalled that (IRSDC), as the nodal agency, is taking up re-development of around 600 major Railway stations across the country. Towards this objective of stakeholders' consultation, an idea competition for development of 635 stations of Indian Railways, SRIJAN (Station Rejuvenation Initiative through Joint Action) has been launched at MyGov portal since January 26.

This mammoth exercise will kick start the program worth Rs 1,00,000 crore investments and requires extensive involvement of engineers, planners, architects and other professionals besides the contractors and developers. To prepare the plans for stations, IRSDC has taken up multiple initiatives:

i) International Design Competition for 3 Railway Stations, namely, Nagpur, Gwalior and Baiyappanhalli

ii) IRSDC has empanelled experienced consultants with multi-disciplinary teams

iii) IRSDC has also invited professionals to take initiatives and share their vision for railway stations for a token fee and in response to these invitations eleven architects have registered themselves for development of 74 railway stations.

iv) SRIJAN (Station Rejuvenation Initiative through Joint Action), an Ideas competition has been launched by IRSDC, where users and young minds are invited to put across their ideas for implementing low cost high visibility items at station areas. Around 450 entries have been received so far

The last date for submission of entries in this competition is March 26. The winners will get certificates and worthy ideas will be incorporated in the designs. IRSDC has also launched competition through Mygov portal for IRSDC logo and tagline. The winner for logo competition will get cash prize of Rs 75,000/-and for tagline also will get Rs 75,000/-. The last date of submission of entries is March 26. (EOIC)

Meghalaya govt making efforts to tackle militancy: State Home Minister

SHILLONG, MARCH 13 /--/ Meghalaya home minister James K Sangma has said the new dispensation is making concerted efforts to tackle militancy and crime. "The government of Meghalaya is committed to its goal of ensuring that the state is free of militants and criminals," Sangma said after eight GNLA cadres surrendered before him at the police headquarters on Monday. The surrender came just a few weeks after the killing of GNLA commander-in-chief Sohan D Shira on February 24. This is the beginning of the end of militancy in Meghalaya, Sangma said, appealing to other militant organisations in the state to shun violence and return to the mainstream. "The surrendered cadres will be receiving a rehabilitation package. They will be given much-needed guidance too," Sangma said. The militants on Monday gave up two AK-56, Insas Rifle, 9mm pistol, Glock-19 with 7 rounds, SMG with 65 live round, 303 Rifle with 50 rounds, Air gun and .22 pistol. (PTI)

ER to preserve Old Jubilee Bridge as heritage monument

Harindra Rao, General Manager, Eastern Railway reviewing Safety, Security & Punctuality at a high level meeting with the Principal Head of Departments and Divisional Railway Managers (through video conference) at Eastern Railway's Headquarters, Fairlie Place, today

KOLKATA, MARCH 13 /--/ In a high level meeting held at ER Headquarters, Fairlie Place on Monday Harindra Rao, general manager, Eastern Railway asked the Howrah Division to make necessary arrangements for preservation of Old Jubilee Bridge structure as a heritage monument, so that educationists, historians and students and general public can see the same and know the details of the bridge as it is a unique structure. The details of the bridge should be nicely displayed so that visitors to this site can see the structure and appreciate the display. He also asked Sealdah Division that the International Passenger Terminal at Kolkata station should also be planned to match with international standards as the foreign tourists will use the same.

Photographs of railways' history, heritage and achievements of the railways in general and Eastern Railway in particular should be on display to attract the foreign visitors. All running rooms, reserved accommodation at stations like Howrah, Sealdah, Asansol and Malda and other A-1 category stations should be well maintained and nicely decorated, keeping in view the importance of that particular locality. Photographs and other items should also be on display for beautification of the area.

The general asked the divisional railway managers to plan for sustained maintenance of the track and yard and proper maintenance of Railway complexes so far as cleanliness is concerned. He, however, made it clear that apart from the focus area and priority subject like safety, punctuality and security and the other areas like earnings, loading, passenger amenities should also be improved further. The budget allocated must be properly utilized and improvement must be ensured for all passenger amenities work.

Rao also asked the officers to move out for working in the field than sitting at Headquarters or divisional headquarters. Officers those who have completed reasonable years in headquarters should be sent out of headquarters and posted in the Divisions. He emphasized on promptness and quick disposal of various work concerning to staff welfare and passenger amenities. All out efforts should be made for keeping the performance of Eastern Railway at a high level.

The general manager reviewed the performance of all the four divisions thoroughly and advised for better coordination amongst the departments and also better coordination with the divisions and headquarters for quick disposal of various sanctions and other related administrative functions. (EOIC)

Doctors, bikers start 2,200-km long ride for cancer awareness

GUWAHATI, MARCH 13 /--/ A group of doctors and bikers have joined hands to travel through 2,200 kilometres across the North East to create awareness about cancer by enacting street plays and organising talks along their entire journey. Twenty-five doctors and staff of Cachar Cancer Hospital and Research Centre and members of biking group Silchar Thumpers have kick started their ride on Monday from Silchar in Assam.

Members taking part in the rally - a collaboration of Tata Trusts, Cachar Cancer Hospital and others - will criss-cross seven NE states and will touch Shillong, Guwahati, Tezpur, Itanagar, Dibrugarh, Kohima, Imphal, Aizawl and Agartala before ending the ride again at Silchar on March 22.

"Our purpose is to both support delivery of high quality and affordable cancer care close to patients' homes and also to generate mass awareness about its prevention and early detection," Tata Trusts Medical Director (Cancer Care Programme) Arnie Purushotham told PTI. There is a high incidence of tobacco-related cancers in the North East such as oral and lung cancer, many of which are curable through preventative measures, screening and early detection, he added.

In every state capitals and town that the rally would pass, the riders' arrival will be accompanied by a series of events, including street plays, sensitisation and educational talks as well as stories of cancer patients, he added.

In addition, workshops on cancer research and careers in oncology will be conducted for medical students and nurses in Guwahati by Tata Memorial Hospital (Mumbai), Adyar Cancer Institute (Chennai) and Regional Cancer Centre (Trivandrum). During the rally, the doctors will interact with people at locations along the route to spread awareness about cancer, its preventive measures, detection aspects and treatment modalities.

According to data available with Tata Trusts, the Northeastern region with a population of approximately five crore sees about 45,000 new cancer cases every year. Across India, Aizawl district in Mizoram reported the highest rate of cancer cases among men, while Papumpare district in Arunachal Pradesh recorded the highest incidence among women. Tata Trusts is also working with Emmanuel Health Association, Ajmal Foundation, Deepshika Foundation, National Service Scheme and Rotary Foundation among others for cancer care awareness and screening in the outreach programme.
